

PA Certified Safety Committee

The Pennsylvania Department of Labor and Industry offers employers resources to establish and maintain a Certified Workplace Safety Committee. Information is available on their website for a high level overview, as well as specific information on the application process, FAQs, training resources, and contact information for additional questions.

This document will provide a high level overview, as well as provide links to obtain detailed information for establishing and maintaining a workplace safety committee.

Important requirements for the committee to include, but are not limited to:

- Safety Committees need to be established and in operation for six consecutive months prior to completing the initial Safety Committee application.
- Committees need to have at least four members that meet monthly and represent all primary operations. Two employer representatives and 2 employee representatives.
- Members of the committee must receive live training provided by a qualified trainer in Safety Committee operation, initially and then annually.
- Monthly meetings need to be documented and include meeting agendas, attendance lists, and meeting minutes.

The loss control services provided by Donegal Mutual Insurance Company and its affiliates (“Donegal”) are intended to assist policyholders in managing and reducing potential risks and hazards that could lead to loss or damage. These services are advisory in nature and are offered as a courtesy to help our clients create safer working environments. Disclaimers and Limitations of Services:

No Warranty: The recommendations, suggestions, or guidance provided by our loss control representatives are based on general industry standards and practices. Donegal does not warrant or guarantee that compliance with these recommendations will prevent any specific loss, damage, or injury.

Not a Substitute for Legal or Professional Advice: Our loss control services are not a substitute for legal advice, engineering assessments, or other professional services. Policyholders should consult with qualified professionals for specific advice tailored to their operations.

Policyholder Responsibility: It is the responsibility of the policyholder to implement any loss control recommendations and to ensure compliance with all applicable laws, regulations, and standards. Failure to do so may result in uncovered losses or other consequences as outlined in the policy terms.

No Liability: Donegal assumes no responsibility or liability for any loss, damage, or injury arising out of the use of, or reliance upon, the loss control services provided. The policyholder assumes full responsibility for any decisions made based on the information and recommendations provided by Donegal.

No Modification of Policy Terms: The provision of loss control services does not modify or waive any terms, conditions, exclusions, or limitations of the insurance policy. The policyholder’s coverage is governed solely by the terms and conditions of the policy issued by Donegal.
